Tear Gas, Fire Hose Used in Belgian Strike

By JOHN SWAELENS

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Police used tear gas and fire hoses today to break up a demonstration in Ghent. Socialist union leaders promptly called for a general strike in Antwerp to retaliate.

It was the first use of tear gas in the eight-day strike aimed at toppling the government of Premier Gaston Eyskens. Strikers in Ghent were trying to force workers out of the fuel gas works administrative office.

Antwerp, living in the Flemish northern section, has not been hit as hard by the strike which has paralyzed the Socialist strongholds in the industrial and French-speaking south.

The government had reported a bag-to-work movement in Antwerp, except for workers at the big port installations. Harbor installations are still paralyzed.

If successful, the Antwerp call would spread the general strike to an important Flemish area, where many are Social Christians and back Eyskens, himself a Social Christian.

A mass demonstration of strikers was staged this morning in Brussels without incident. The capital itself appeared under virtual military siege. Policemen were camped in the central public park opposite Parliament and the royal palace, and in front of the opera house.

Rallies and demonstrations by the striking, 700,000-member Socialist unions were countered by calls from the Catholic Social Christian unions to their 800,000 members to remain steadfast at work.

The Socialists launched the walkout eight days ago in protest against Eyskens' plans for tax increases, and social welfare cuts because of the country's financial setback in the Congo. They denounced the government's strike-breaking efforts as dictatorial.

Called Premier Eyskens a Hitler and demanded the fall of the Social Christian-Liberal coalition.

Catholic union leaders condemned the strike as political and revolutionary, aimed at overthrow of democratic processes.

Belgium, its Christmas dimmed by the strike, faced a cheerless New Year's with few trains running, many power stations shut down or nearly so, mines and industries at a standstill.

Although the government said conditions were returning to normal in the Catholic-dominated north, where the strike generally had not made great inroads, the situation in the industrial south was gloomy.

In Brussels a 48-hour streetcar strike started. About a third of the cars were running, manned by Catholic union members.

Parliament is in recess until next week. No negotiations have taken place between the government and the strikers.

All police and the army were on the alert, and reinforcements had been sent to sensitive spots. Army reserve units were being called back to duty.

What Americans Are Eating

WASHINGTON (AP)—If you were an average American you consumed an estimated 1,480 pounds of food this year.

The Agriculture Department today broke that down this way: 414 pounds of dairy products, except butter.

409 pounds of fruits and vegetables, 108 pounds of potatoes.

178 pounds of meat, fish and poultry, 14 pounds of flour and cereal.

108 pounds of sugar and syrup, 7 pounds of butter, fats and oils, 41 pounds of eggs.

17 pounds of coffee, tea and cocoa.

Africa Is Alarmed Over Blast

LONDON (AP)—Alarm and disapproval of France's third atomic test sounded today in African nations and elsewhere around the world. Nigeria was especially concerned.

A government minister in Lagos conferred with French Ambassador Raymond Offroy. The press in that new African nation asked that French assets in Nigeria be frozen, the French Embassy closed, and all French goods be banned.

Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa, Nigerian prime minister, said earlier whatever steps Nigeria might take to express resentment would be announced this weekend. Nigeria had protested after France's second test and Ghana temporarily froze French assets at that time.

At a noisy news conference, Offroy shouted that not one human being died because of the atom tests. He said the tests were to give France an atom bomb and bring riches and water to the desert eventually through atomic energy.

Offroy said the Nigerian border is more than 900 miles from Tuesday's test site at Reggan. Then he pointed out that U.S. atomic tests in Nevada were 250 miles from Los Angeles.

Thinks Wage Action Should Be Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said today Congress should defer action on proposals to increase the minimum wage.

Fulbright has a luncheon appointment with President-elect John F. Kennedy in Palm Beach Thursday. The Arkansas senator said he did not plan to advance his views about the minimum wage to Kennedy, however, unless the president-elect asks him about them.

Fulbright heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Reports from Palm Beach said Kennedy planned to discuss foreign policy with Fulbright.

In reply to questions, Fulbright told a reporter he fears an increase in the minimum wage at this time would place American business at "a greater disadvantage in competing with our allies."

To boost the level a little when the United States is trying to conserve its shrinking gold reserves would be very bad timing, he said.

Legislation is expected to be offered in the new Congress to raise the minimum wage from the present $1 an hour to $1.25.

Final Rites for J. R. Lundy

Final rites for Jesse R. Lundy, 59, who died at his home here were held Dec. 25 at Unity Baptist Church. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mamie Lundy; a daughter, Mrs. Milton Buncivech of Belmar, N.J.; a son, Charles Lundy of Houston; two sisters, Mrs. Jean Hampton and Mrs. Nellie Crumley of Piedmont, Mo.; three brothers, George of Lockesburg, Elmer of Ellington, Mo., Darie Lundy of Poplar Bluff, Mo. Burial by Oakcrest was in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Negro Woman Stabs Anker

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP)—Annie B. Taylor, 41, a Negro, was stabbed to death Tuesday and police held Inez Caldwell, 38, also a Negro, in connection with the slaying.

Police Chief Bill Guber said the slaying, on the porch of a grocery store, followed an argument.

U. S. Plane Is Hit Observing Soviet Airdrops

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—An unarmed U.S. plane was hit by gun fire while observing Soviet air drops to Pathet Lao rebels Tuesday, the American military attaché's office said today.

The gunfire may have come from a Soviet plane. No one was injured aboard the twin-engine plane, belonging to the U.S. Air Force attaché in Saigon, South Viet Nam. The plane carried Maj. Armand Riser, assistant military attaché and a crew of four.

The plane, hit in the left engine and fuselage, made it back to Vientiane.

The plane was making a reconnaissance flight of Soviet drops to the pro-Communist rebels at Vangvieng, 65 miles north of Vientiane at the request of the Lao-Lao government, the attaché's office said.

Riser, who was making a visual reconnaissance from his plane, saw a Soviet plane dropping equipment over Vangvieng, the attaché's office said.

"He flew over on top of the Soviet plane to see what type of equipment it was dropping," a spokesman added.

"When he was over the Soviet plane he received small-caliber, probably .30 caliber, machine gun fire."

"At the time he was hit he was flying over a jungle area. It is not certain the fire came from a Soviet plane."

Air Force to Be Headed by Zuckert

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy today tapped Eugene Zuckert to be secretary of the Air Force. He was assistant secretary in the Truman administration and also has served as a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Announcement of the selection of Zuckert, 49, came after Kennedy had picked John B. Connally—Texas lawyer, decorated Navy veteran and long-time political associate of Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson—to be secretary of the Navy in the new administration.

Zuckert and Connally, 43, are Democrats.

Kennedy headquarters also announced that the President-elect will confer at his Atlantic shore home here Thursday with Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

The Zuckert and Connally appointments were announced by Kennedy after consultation with the man he has named to be secretary of defense, Robert S. McNamara, who is resigning as president of the Ford Motor Co.

Zuckert was assistant secretary of the Air Force from 1947 to 1952. He was a member of the Atomic Energy Commission from 1952 to 1954 under appointment by President Harry S. Truman.

He was a lieutenant junior grade in the Navy in 1944-45 and afterward was an assistant to Stuart Symington, now U. S. senator from Missouri and then chief of the Surplus Property Administration. Zuckert was assistant secretary of the Air Force while Symington, a Democrat, was civilian head of that service.

Bids Taken on Colony Buildings

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Nabholz Construction Co., of Conway submitted an apparent low bid of $700,701 today on a contract to build four new buildings at the Arkansas Children's Colony at Conway.

The new construction will increase the colony's capacity from 25 to 41 mentally retarded children.

Included in bids opened today by the state Purchasing Department were cost of plumbing, wiring, heating and air conditioning. Equipment, to be bought later, will run total cost of the facilities to about $787,200.

The new buildings are a diagnostic treatment center, a convalescent center and two nursing cottages.

Four other bids, ranging up to $743,000, were submitted.

Construction is expected to start in January.

CONFERENCE — PRESIDENT-ELECT John F. Kennedy, center, met with high government officials at his Palm Beach, Fla., home for a series of conferences dealing with space, fiscal and State Department policies in the new administration. W. Germany Russia in Trade Pact

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany and the Soviet Union have agreed on a new trade pact, the government announced today.

Apparently, the crucial question of Berlin's economic status has been settled.

West Germany pressed trade pact talks with Communist East Germany in East Berlin, where the same question of Berlin has remained the stumbling block.

In both cases, West Germany wants West Berlin treated as part of the economy of West Germany because they are tied together by a common currency. This also would insure open communications to Berlin.

The East Germans followed the Soviet lead in balking at this proposal. Furthermore, the East Germans have threatened to halt land and river traffic to Berlin, 100 miles inside the Iron Curtain, if no trade agreement with West Germany is reached by Jan. 1.

Conceivably, Soviet agreement on West Berlin's status would mean East Germany will back down on the issue, but the East German negotiator in Berlin gave no hint of this.

Asked if an agreement would be signed today, Heinz Behrend of the East German Trade Ministry replied: "If the West talks about trade and not about politics. This was a reference to the Berlin clause."

Announcement of the West German-Soviet agreement came from a government spokesman after Chancellor Konrad Adenauer met with Soviet Ambassador Andrei Smirnov. The spokesman said the agreement probably will be signed before the end of the year.

Kiwians Hand Out Assignments

Committee assignment for the new year were handed out yesterday to members of the Hope Kiwanis Club by President-elect George Frazier, who will succeed Henry Seamans, outgoing president.

A brief review of this year's accomplishments, plus discussion of an early date for the 1961 Kiwanis Minstrel, were among other routine matters before the club.

Dick Stewart of Prescott and Lawrence Albritton of Hope were guests.

Traffic Deaths in Nation 488

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's traffic accidents during the 78-hour Christmas weekend killed 488 persons—an average of one about every 10 minutes.

The final toll was below the pre-holiday estimate of 510 made by the National Safety Council.

It was the lowest for a 3-day Christmas holiday since 1949 when 413 traffic deaths were reported and compared to last year's Christmas weekend total of 493 fatalities.

The council said this year's total compared with an expectation of as many as 350 on a non-holiday weekend of comparable length at this time of year. An Associated Press survey for a 78-hour weekend period earlier this month showed 293 traffic fatalities.

The council has estimated 340 persons may be killed in motor vehicle accidents during the New Year holiday weekend, also a 78-hour period, from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday (local time).

Burglar Knew How to Crack That Vault

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Police and FBI agents, who had a harder time cracking a vault than the burglars did, today confirmed that some of the more than $1 million in cash and checks in the safe was missing.

"We know that several thousand dollars is missing," a spokesman said. "However, it may take several hours of book work to get anything resembling an accurate figure."

Officers said the money was stolen from the Rusdale Armored Car Service office early Tuesday.

They weren't sure a theft had occurred until more than 21 hours later. A time-lock failed to open the vault door at 6:30 a.m. as scheduled.

Authorities waited through the day in hopes the door would open automatically, then brought in pneumatic drills to cut a hole through the side of the vault Tuesday night.

Officers theorized that the time-lock had been set to open the door shortly after midnight Tuesday, rather than the usual 6:30 a.m.

Several employees of the firm were questioned.

Survivors of Ship Ask $1.4 Million

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fourteen survivors of the tanker Pine Ridge are seeking $1.4 million from the ship's owners and operators.

They filed suits Tuesday in U.S. District Court asking $100,000 each. The suits charge that the 10,417-ton tanker was unsafe and unseaworthy and that Keystone Shipping Co., Philadelphia, the operators, and Paco Tankers, Inc., Wilmington, Del., the owners, were negligent in allowing it to be in that condition.

The Pine Ridge broke in two in a storm off Cape Hatteras, N.C., last Wednesday. Twenty-nine of those aboard were rescued. Seven others, including the captain, drowned.

The suits also accuse Keystone and Paco of not taking proper measures to repair the hull and not making proper inspection of the ship. Filing on behalf of the survivors was the Philadelphia firm, Freedman, Landis and Lowry, admiralty law specialists.

The suits further state that the survivors were not provided with prompt and adequate medical care, and that the 14 complainants will require hospitalization and medical treatment for long periods.

Neighbors Bully Stabs Boy to Death

By EDWARD NICKERSON

NEW YORK (AP) Robert Guitari, 14, Christmas tree delivery boy murdered Friday night, was stabbed by a neighborhood bully trying to extort money from him, police say.

Acting Chief of Detectives Francis Robb said Edward Vogt, 17, a slender, good-looking youth with a crop of brown hair worn in a luxuriant pompadour, admitted the killing Tuesday.

Vogt told police he stabbed Guitari with a nine-inch hunting knife after the boy refused his demand, "Give me all your money."

Young Guitari had only two quarters in his pocket, tips from Christmas tree deliveries.

Police said Vogt told them he had been selling Christmas trees in the upper West Side when he saw Guitari "lugging a big tree." He said he thought the boy would "be an easy touch," and followed him into the building, offering to help carry the tree.

By Vogt's account, as reported by police, the two went up in an elevator to the sixth floor. There Vogt demanded the boy's money.

Vogt said he pulled out a hunting knife. Guitari tried to run, but Vogt grabbed him and stabbed him repeatedly in the back.

Vogt then ran to the roof—without taking the 50 cents from the boy's pocket—and made his way across the roof tops to his own apartment building.

Robb said Vogt was arrested because of complaints from many boys in the neighborhood that he had been extorting money from them by threats.

Vogt has a lengthy police record that includes conviction in 1958 for molesting a 12-year-old girl, and charges of mugging, petty and grand larceny.

Koreans Retire Officers

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—The South Korean army today retired 1,534 officers and noncommissioned officers as part of its plan to cut 30,000 men from the army. Each was given two years' salary.

Soviet Vessels Enroute to Cuba

MOSCOW (AP)—A fleet of Soviet merchant ships steamed through the Baltic today, bound for Cuba with cargoes of tractors, paper and other goods.

Mayor Jose Llanos Govel of Havana said in Moscow the shipments have "broken the economic blockade instituted by monopolists of the United States and other countries in an attempt to strangle the republic."

Bombings Bring New Anti-U. S. Blast in Cuba

By RICHARD VALERIANI

HAVANA (AP)—Charges that the United States is supplying explosives to terrorists were renewed today by the semi-official newspaper Revolution after a series of bomb blasts in Havana.

It made the charge under a front-page picture of a boy wounded in the bombing of a department store Tuesday. The bombing was one of four in Havana.

A train was also wrecked in central Cuba by saboteurs trying to undermine Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime. The injured totaled more than 60.

"Yankee TNT," said Revolution. "The vile hand of imperialism. Eisenhower Pentagon Fascist clergy; it supplies explosives to its henchmen in Cuba to increase the 20,000 victims they caused in seven years of tyranny under (quoting President Fulbright) Batista."

Fifteen persons were injured in the department store blast, most of them by flying glass. Revolution said investigations showed TNT was used. "This fact demonstrates that the terrorists are receiving this explosive from the United States," it added.

In addition to the department store blast, bombs exploded in a variety store, a main power station and a plush night club in Havana. There was extensive damage to the club, once a favorite with American tourists.

Unexploded bombs were also reported found at a gas plant and another variety store.

A Camaguey-Havana passenger train collided with another train at a crossing in Camaguey Province, injuring more than 50 persons. Officials blamed counter-revolutionaries.

Following the bombings, Castro militiamen, police and bystanders marched to Havana's central park shouting "Saboteurs to the execution wall."

A collection was taken to aid the injured, who included five children.

All the injured were victims of a bomb that exploded in a women's rest room adjoining a crowded cafeteria in the Fogar store, which the government expropriated from private Cuban interests.

A second bomb exploded in a small variety store in Havana's shopping district. No injuries were reported.

Another bomb went off in the power station in Tlalpiedra, in east Havana. Damage was slight and no one was hurt.

Reliable sources said the power station was evacuated and that two more bombs were found after a two-hour search.

Night bombings by anti-Castro elements have been frequent in recent weeks, but the daylight blasts were a new development in the mounting strife.

Son Free on Bond in Fatal Shooting

A 13 year old Negro boy, Floyd Nalley, was released on $2,000 bond yesterday in connection with the fatal shooting Sunday of his father, Chester Nalley. The shooting occurred in the Clow community, according to Sheriff Jimmie Griffin.

After the shooting the boy went to Nashville and gave himself up to the Howard County Sheriff. Sheriff Griffin said the shooting was the result of a family quarrel of long standing and that the boy used a .22 caliber rifle.

Raley to Head Men's Bible Class

Paul Raley will take over the presidency of the Men's Class of the Presbyterian Church Sunday. He has announced that the class will begin a new study this Sunday with Haskell Jones as the teacher.

The class begins its session at 9:50 a.m. following the Coffee Hour.

Charges New York Firemen Slowed Navy

NEW YORK (AP)—A Navy witness testified today that Navy men could have extinguished the fatal fire aboard the aircraft carrier Constellation in half an hour except for interference by city firemen.

The witness, John P. Rutledge, a chief machinist's mate, also hit back at charges of messy housekeeping aboard the carrier and said the city firemen appeared to lack experience in ship fires.

Rutledge testified before a naval court of inquiry investigating the disastrous fire Dec. 19 at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. The fire claimed the lives of 49 workmen and did $75-million damage to the $275-million ship.

City Fire Commissioner Edward Cavanagh Jr. testified Tuesday that the ship was in such sloppy condition he would have "ordered work stopped and the premises cleaned up" if it had been a civilian project.

Rutledge is stationed aboard the destroyer Emory, berthed near the site where construction of the Constellation was nearing completion.

He said that shortly after the fire broke out aboard the carrier, he organized a fire-fighting and rescue detail of 26 men equipped with special equipment and oxygen tanks.

Rutledge said the detail moved aboard the Constellation and "we were doing fine until we were ordered off the ship because of lack of hard hats."

He referred to the type of protective helmets worn by workmen. He said "a New York City fire chief" gave the order to get out on the ground that falling debris made the use of hard hats essential.

Rutledge contended that, at that time, his men could have extinguished the fire in half an hour with a fog type spray they were using.

Rutledge testified that the city firemen used a steady stream of water rather than the Navy technique of fog spray for fighting ship fires.

He said it "appeared obvious" to him that the city firemen had no experience in fighting such fires.

Rutledge testified that he had not seen any debris contributing to the fire—such as paper, rags or rubbish.

Rutledge testified that he had not seen any debris contributing to the fire—such as paper, rags or rubbish.

Only Word From Plant Is Needed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Only word from Reynolds Metals Co. is needed to complete the setup of a conference Jan. 5 to discuss possible means of averting a near-shutdown of a Reynolds plant near Arkadelphia.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus called the session Tuesday, but was unable to reach Reynolds officials. He sent a telegram to Richard S. Reynolds of Richmond, Va., the firm's president, inviting him but has not had a response to it.

Officials of Arkansas Power & Light Co., Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., Southwestern Power Administration, state Public Service Commission and members of the state's congressional delegation have agreed to attend.

Faubus said the date could be changed if it is not satisfactory. However, the cutback at the Arkadelphia plant from some 300 to about 70 employees is scheduled to be accomplished by Jan. 6.

Faubus said he hoped the meeting would result in a decision to keep the plant open. Failing that, he said, it might "clear the air" about the reasons for the cutback.

Reynolds officials have said an aluminum reduction plant had to be shut down because of a drop in the demand for aluminum. They have said the Arkadelphia plant was selected because of high operating costs.

The 70 employees who will be retained are employed in a casting operation.

Thinks There Is Way to Avoid H-War

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—There is a way to avoid H-bomb war horrors a psychologist declared today.

He blamed the cold war mainly on human nature and the idea that mighty defenses assure security.

The way out lies through realizing this, and then seeking new ideas, said Dr. Charles E. Osgood of the University of Illinois.

He spoke after a famous British scientist-novelist, Sir Charles P. Snow, had predicted that within at most, six years Red China and some other countries would have nuclear bombs.

"Within, at most, 10 years, some of those bombs are going off" unless scientists and others act to prevent it, Sir Charles said.

Dr. Ralph Lapp, physicist of Arlington, Va., presented private estimates of this country's tremendous nuclear power.

He said he figures the United States now has nuclear weapons equal to 50,000 of the atom bombs which destroyed Hiroshima, and could produce the equivalent of 30,000 more in a half dozen more years.

The scientists addressed sessions of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Sir Charles spoke Tuesday night and the others today in sessions sponsored by an AAAS Committee on Science in the Promotion of Human Welfare.

Dr. Osgood said "nations today are lumbering down the one habitual path to 'security'—bigger and better weapons—gathering as they go tensions which make it less and less possible to conceive of any other alternatives."

A world government may be the only permanent solution, he said.

To halt the arms race, Osgood suggested one-sided steps, announced in advance, to reduce tensions. If carefully done, "pressures of public opinion both internal and external would force reciprocation."

This, he said, "assumes that the Russians are more like us than bogeymen, that they would like to find a way out of this mess as much as we would, that their motivations are derived more from insecurity than from the urge to world domination."

Cotton Queen Contest on at Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP)—Twenty-one cotton country beauties begin a whirl of activities today that will end with one of them going to New York Friday as the 1961 Maid of Cotton.

Most of the girls spent Tuesday at the beauty parlor although beauty is only one of the feminine attributes to be judged. Looks, personality, background and training count equally.

The girls spend today practicing, posing for photographs, and appearing at a luncheon, a television show and a dinner dance. The judging begins officially Thursday.

The Maid of Cotton will carry the story of cotton to the whole world during six months of sales and promotional activities.

The National Cotton Council, one of the promoters, says the maid faces jobs "more challenging and more diversified than those experienced by any other non-professional girl in the nation."

Last year's maid, Sandra Lee Jennings of Riverside, Calif., said her reign became so busy that at one time she could only stare blankly when an airline stewardess asked her where she was going.

So tight is the timing that each contestant was required to bring with her the clothes she would take to New York if successful. In New York the new maid will be measured for an all-cotton wardrobe and readied for her tour in behalf of cotton.

open after the officers fired numerous rounds into the underbrush.

After the officers handcuffed him, they led him past the two-room home.

As he walked past, a daughter, Laura, rushed from the house and shoved 20 cents in his hand, apparently all the money the family possessed.

"Goodbye, children," Johnson called, "I'll see you later, maybe."

Johnson slipped through a police barricade Tuesday night after he wounded two police officers while he was barricaded in his home. Officers 4th grad 115-1200

Says Equality Will Be Attained

NORTH PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—President Eisenhower says the goal of equality before the law for all men "will be one day attained."

In a letter to James Gabrielle, whose family attempted to break a white boycott of an integrated New Orleans school, the President said:

"Our nation must continue her steady advance toward equality before the law for all men, and each one of us must do his share to make certain that we have a government of laws, not of men. If all of us will, like yourself and your family, stand up to be counted in the cause of human dignity, even though personal sacrifice be involved, these goals will one day be attained."

Mrs. Gabrielle braved the white boycott to take her daughter Yolanda, 6, to school but threats and unpleasantness finally forced the family to come north to join Rhode Island relatives.

Israeli Has Serious Rift in Cabinet

JERUSALEM (AP)—Exonerated of former Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon has caused a possibly serious rift in Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion's Cabinet and his Socialist Mapai party, authoritative sources said today.

Ben-Gurion precipitated the split by refusing to join in approving the findings of an investigating committee that on Sunday cleared Lavon of blame for the censorship-shrouded "security mishap of 1954," the sources said.

Foreign Minister Golda Meir walked out of the Cabinet meeting in protest against Ben-Gurion's stand, the sources said, and drew up a letter of resignation. She reportedly was dissuaded from quitting by Finance Minister Levi Eshkol.

(Details of the "Lavon affair" have been suppressed in Israel by a strict military censorship. It is believed to have concerned an Israeli attack on the Gaza Strip that some diplomats said provoked President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic into seeking modern weapons from the Soviet Union. Lavon reportedly was accused of ordering the attack.)

Lavon, a leading member of Ben-Gurion's party and now secretary-general of His Tadrut, the Israeli federation of labor, was forced out of the government in 1955 on the charge that he had made a serious error in judgment. He denied responsibility for the "security mishap."

An official announcement Sunday said the Cabinet approved the investigating committee's report that Lavon was not responsible for the incident and "probably was the victim of intrigue by a senior army officer."

President Works on His Speech

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower kept his day free of appointments today to work on his forthcoming messages to Congress.

The President's State of the Union message is expected to be presented to Congress within a few days after it convenes Jan. 3. Messages on the budget and the economic report will follow. The President flew to his Gettysburg farm Tuesday afternoon for a spur-of-the-moment visit that lasted an hour. While he was there he examined a building on the Gettysburg College campus he is considering renting for an office after he retires from the White House.

It was announced that Eisenhower will hold no news conference this week. He has not held one since Sept. 7, but the White House has said he will hold one more before the end of his term Jan. 20.

Col. Barton Was Eulogized Tuesday

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Col. T. H. Barton was eulogized Tuesday as a man who "could be measured only by four things—the height of his ideals, the breadth of his sympathies, the length of his purposes and the depth of his character."

The speaker was Dr. J. H. Buchanan of Birmingham, Ala., a former pastor of the First Baptist Church here and a close friend of Barton, the Arkansas oil pioneer who died Saturday.

Barton, 79, was head of Lion Oil Co. until it was merged with Monsanto Chemical Co. He then served as a Monsanto director.

Buchanan and the Rev. C. Ray Hozendorf, pastor of El Dorado's First Methodist Church, officiated at Barton's funeral, which was attended by about 1,000 persons.

Woman Named Representative

CLARENDON, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Doris McCastlain of Brinkley was elected without opposition Tuesday to succeed her late husband as Monroe County representative in the 1961 Legislature.

Marvin (Ted) McCastlain was nominated at the Democratic primary last summer and was elected at the Nov. 8 general election. He died shortly after the election.

A special election was called to choose a successor. Mrs. McCastlain was the only candidate.

Her election will bring to a record four the number of women in the Arkansas House.

DOROTHY DIX

Bachelor in Name Only
Wants to Hear Wedding Bells!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:
Though never married before, I might as well be, having gone with the same girl five years and done everything any man would if married.

My girl loves me but not enough to be my wife. I am 36, she 34. We are old enough to know our own minds but don't. She has a little daughter, age 11, whom I love but does that child need training! She steals, lies, and is a devil generally. Her real father walked out when she was only two. My girl doesn't think a stepfather has any right to tell a child what to do, or give her a licking when she does wrong. But I notice that when I speak, the child obeys me far more readily than she does her mother.

I have a good job, nice home and want my girl as my wife. I think she needs marriage and her child a father. She doesn't. Am I right or is she?—F.G.

Dear F.G.: If your girl doesn't love you enough to be your wife, then you are neither the right husband for her, nor stepfather for her child. A marriage without mutual love will never be happy. Tell your girl she is setting a poor example for her little daughter by her informal relationship with you. No wonder the child is, as you say, a devil!

Dear Helen:

I was happily married for 12 years until I suspected eight months ago that my husband had been having an affair with his secretary for the last five years.

My husband and I have four children whom he says he loves very much. He has told me that he is ashamed and sorry for his disloyal actions. Shall I forgive and take him back?—Heartbroken Wife

Dear Heartbroken Wife: Mighty few marriages would survive if women didn't overlook their husband's extra-marital romancing.

But don't take your husband back unless you love him enough to really forgive and forget. To play the martyr is to ring the death-knell of your marriage.

Dear Helen:

I teach in a school where the principal is a bachelor in his forties. I also am in my forties. I drive to evening university classes with him twice a week. After class we go for coffee and are, in every way, very congenial. He pays for the coffee. Should I make an effort to pay once in awhile? How do you pay a man for favors he has done for you? Would it be proper to invite him to my home, 200 miles distant? In other words, how can I bring him to the matrimonial boiling point?—Miss Em.

Dear Miss Em: Don't deflate your principal's ego by paying for the coffee or anything else! Instead, buy him the latest book on some subject of interest to him as a teacher. Draw him out about his work. Praise him. Get across the idea that you think he's tops in everything. Of course it would be in order to invite him to your home. Make it an occasion—invite some special friends in to meet him. Look your prettiest and—nature will do the rest.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "The Ideal Husband."

Commissioner of Police in Contempt

NEW YORK (AP)—Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy was held in contempt of court and threatened with jail today for failure to heed a court ban against assigning police to higher ranking duties without giving them higher titles and pay.

But the commissioner was told he could purge himself of the contempt citation if he complies with the court order within 10 days.

At police headquarters, Deputy Commissioner Walter Arm said that "the commissioner awaits with interest a copy of the decision. He just wants to see where he has failed to comply (with the court order)."

The court action was the outgrowth of one of numerous wrangles in which Kennedy has been engaged with various segments of the police force lately. Another major row recently developed over Kennedy's refusal to let police work at outside jobs in their spare time.

Supreme Court Justice Arthur G. Klein scored the commissioner as having willfully disobeyed the court and termed the action an insult to the court.

The action against Kennedy was instigated by some 2,000 policemen on various departmental promotion lists.

They contended that Kennedy's assignments of patrolmen, sergeants and captains to higher ranking duties without benefit of higher titles or pay diminished their chances for promotion.

Engineer Retires to Damsite
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—James P. Miller's choice of a retirement home was a natural. The director of activities at six federal reservoirs, he retired to one of them.

Miller, 55, moved to Branson, Mo., where he is building a home on Table Rock Reservoir. A native of Chattanooga, Tenn., who started with the U.S. Corps of Engineers in 1925, Miller has been in charge of operation of power plants at Table Rock, Norfolk and Bull Shoals Dams and recreation facilities at those reservoirs and at Nimrod, Blue Mountain and Clearwater lakes.

Miller, as chief of the Little Rock District's Operations Branch, since 1947, also directed flood fighting and was cited in 1957 for his leadership during flood emergencies on the Arkansas and White Rivers.

Sees 1961 Year of Harmony
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII expressed the hope today that 1961 will be a year of spiritual renewal and of harmony between heaven and earth.

The 79-year-old pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church spoke briefly to about 10,000 people in a general audience.

Pope John said that despite the "little black spots disturbing the horizon," he expected the nations of the world to follow a way of peace during the new year.

Truman Planned to Restore Ike

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman said today he had planned to restore President Eisenhower to five-star Army grade had he been defeated in the 1962 presidential race.

He made the remark to newsmen who accompanied him on his usual morning stroll in 12-degree weather.

Eisenhower resigned from the military upon entering politics eight years ago. There have been reports of a move in Congress to restore his grade as general of the Army when he leaves the White House.

Truman, as usual, covered a wide range of topics on his walk. Asked if he planned to play the "Missouri Waltz" at the inauguration ball for President-elect John F. Kennedy, Truman replied: "I don't know how to play it. I don't like the damned thing but I've had to listen to it more than 40,000 times."

Demand Armistice

WARSAW (AP)—Poland today joined the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam in demanding the 1964 Indochina armistice conference be called back into session to end fighting in Laos. A Polish government statement said world peace is endangered by the Laotian situation and blamed interference by the United States and her allies.

TIME FOR VIOLENCE

By Robert M. Lozada

THE STORY: After a war council with leading teachers of the anarchy, regarding lawlessness of the country, Bart Wagner overhears a quarrel between Hucker Johnson, former of the L.V. and Stella Harding, the woman's daughter. Angry words arise between Johnson and Bart.

CHAPTER XV

That touched Johnson off. He came at Bart with both arms swinging. Bart stopped back, getting the range. Johnson rushed him. Bart met it and pushed him back, then caught him twice in the face as Johnson stumbled. Johnson shook his head and came roaring back. Bart chopped him twice on the chin with his right hand. Johnson

Integration Minor to Legislature

By JOHN R. STARR

Integration—a legislative focal point in Arkansas for several sessions—is expected to be a minor item in the 1961 General Assembly which convenes Jan. 9.

Most lawmakers answering an Associated Press poll said they doubt if the subject will be brought up at all. Several who felt there might be new anti-integration legislation showed little enthusiasm for it.

The answer of Crawford Rep. Milton Willis was typical. "I believe our (anti-integration) laws are adequate."

Arkansas adopted a bundle of anti-integration laws, including a school-closing measure, at a 1958 special session, called by Gov. Orval E. Faubus to deal with the Little Rock integration crisis. Faubus used one of the laws to close Little Rock high schools against integration during the 1958-59 term.

But the school-closing measure was declared unconstitutional by a federal court and Little Rock schools later reopened with token integration.

The key anti-integration measure to emanate from the 1959 Legislature was a proposed constitutional amendment to permit local option closing of public schools threatened by integration.

This proposal was defeated three to one in the Nov. 8 general election. The heavy vote against this measure undoubtedly is a contributing factor in the lawmakers' chicanery on the integration question.

Here are some sample replies from lawmakers who were asked if they thought any new anti-integration legislation would be offered in 1961.

Sen. Doug Bradley of Jonesboro: "Not unless something happens to arouse the emotions of the people."

Washington Rep. David Burlison: "I have not heard of any such proposals yet."

Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison: "No. And get Daisy Bates out of the state, and we would have very little trouble." (Mrs. Bates is state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.)

M. H. Evans, freshman representative from Van Buren County: "I think we'll have something on sit-ins."

Pulaski Rep. Gayle Windsor said: "You mean there's some we haven't passed yet?"

No one said he would oppose any integration legislation if it were offered, but the question did not ask for a stand.

Escapee Shot by His Captor

CUMMINS STATE PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP)—K. C. Miller "played sick" to get into the prison hospital, then escape but he wound up in the hospital anyway—shot by his captor.

Prison Supt. Lee Henslee said Miller, a 25-year-old Negro, jerked free from a guard as he was being taken to the hospital Monday night. He eluded pursuers until Tuesday night when a member of a search party shot and wounded him as he ran through a heavily wooded area about a mile east of the prison.

His wound was not serious. Henslee said Miller was sentenced in 1959 to a total of 12 years from Desha and Lincoln Counties on burglary and grand larceny charges.

DES MOINES COMICS — Since the turn of the century humorous and even grotesque faces have been looking down on passers-by from the Polk County Court House in Des Moines, Iowa. The faces, set in the stone over the first-story windows, are attributed to one George Washington Bird. Passage of time has obscured whatever reasons Bird had for placing the ludicrous faces on the stately building. No matter. They still bring a smile.

riding up on the flat," he said. He caught up the black and crossed the creek and trotted across the slope under the eastern Caprock.

He was not astonished, however, to see a rider come down from the direction of the spring an hour later, out of sight of the house. He knew it was Stella Harding, riding sidesaddle.

She pulled up, her beautiful face flushed from the ride, her black hair in perfect place under a stiff-brimmed ladies' riding hat worn at a jaunty angle.

"I thought you were here to keep Mrs. Lewis' company," he said.

She smiled. "From what I see, you were doing very well at that task."

"I work for her," said Bart. "That's all."

"You two almost emptied the Cedar Valley. Catherine herself said that."

"To get a bullet out of my arm."

Her eyes shone. "Bart Wagner," she said softly, "everything you do is perfect."

"No. By no means."

"You told Catherine you had to keep on the move," she said. "You might as well go east."

She looked up. "I know she's pretty and has nice clothes—but is she that much nicer than me, Bart?"

"the best things in life are free... paid"

Free is a nice word to sing about, but not very practical advice when it comes to raising a family.

In fact, when you get right down to sorting the thistles from the clover, you begin to realize that the really important things for day-to-day existence aren't free at all. And we're willing to part with our hard-earned cash to buy them simply because we feel they are important.

Take a simple thing like a copy of a newspaper... people just aren't going to buy it if they don't want it. Paid circulation is important because it demonstrates the wantiness of a publication.

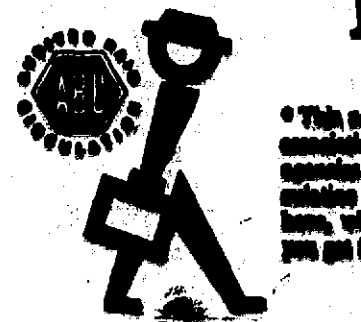

ABC audits our circulation at regular intervals. Following these audits, they publish the facts to help you decide the kind of a job we can do for your advertising.

Magnolia and DeQueen Win Opening Tilts

By Vines Foster
Hope Star Sports Writer

The Hope Holiday Tournament opened last night in a thrilling upset as Magnolia edged out Camden 44-42 in the final quarter. In the second tournament game at Jones Field House, DeQueen eased past Ashdown 51-30.

Camden has been picked to win District 4AA this year, but a stubborn Magnolia five wouldn't be denied, as they came from behind to win. Fouls also hurt Camden, since Magnolia took 24 of their 44 points in free throws as Camden had 27 fouls.

Camden led 20-19 at the half and 31-30 at the end of the third period, but Magnolia pulled ahead with a minute and a half left in the game. Camden tied things up then at 42-42. Magnolia's guard and high point man with 21, Rankin, drove in for the basket and was fouled. He sank the two important free throws for the win. Camden with only a couple of seconds left, broke down court and Dawson shot as the buzzer sounded from 35 feet out just scarcely missing it.

Wilson was high man for Camden with 17 points.

DeQueen ran over a cold Ashdown bunch 51-30. The Leopards led 13-6, 26-15, 36-22 and 51-30 at the end of each quarter respectively. DeQueen's Petet was high with 17 points. He was followed by teammate Dwyane Cox with 11 and Bocox of Ashdown with 9.

Today at 2 p.m. the Stamps girls take on Amity. At 3:30 p.m. the Lewisville boys play Amity. Tonight the Hope Lady Cats open against Lewisville at 7 p.m. with the Bobcats facing a tough team from Stamps at 8:30 p.m.

Everyone who missed last night's thrillers better be out to boost Hope tonight and see some good basketball.

Tournament Loses Over $2,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first Aluminum Bowl basketball classic here lost more than $2,000, but sponsors still want to try to continue the doubleheader.

A committee of the Aluminum Bowl Association voted Tuesday to absorb the loss on the first classic, played last week with Arkansas and Texas of the Southwest Conference and Tennessee and Alabama of the Southeastern Conference.

Continuation is contingent upon Arkansas agreeing to play in the classic again, availability of other teams and financial support.

The University of Arkansas has guaranteed each of the visiting teams $2,500, with the association to pay other expenses. Tuesday's action, however, relieves the university of its responsibility.

Arkansas coach Glen Rose had said that Arkansas couldn't underwrite any future classics. Arkansas won't make anything out of this year's classic, but it won't lose anything either.

Committee members proposed a date between Christmas and New Year's as better than the week before Christmas.

One committee member, Allen Berry, said a number of merchants had said they would back the holiday festival.

Cage Powers Really in a Tug of War

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

There is going to be some tug-of-war and pulling among the nation's college basketball powers before the week is out. That's for sure.

The situation in New York's Holiday Festival shapes up as a battle of giants after Ohio State the nation's top-ranked team in the current Associated Press poll, third-ranked St. Bonaventure and seventh-ranked St. John's all emerged victorious Tuesday. Their add Utah to the list and there certainly are fireworks aplenty brewing.

Off the tournament trail, second-ranked Bradley had to go into overtime to beat Drake 83-77 Tuesday night while St. Louis ranked eighth, and fifth-ranked Louisville warmed up for their Friday night clash with victories. St. Louis won over Southern Methodist 74-50 and Louisville easily dumped Brigham Young 95-67.

Tonight, Indiana (No. 4) gets into action against Stanford in the Los Angeles Classic while Duke (No. 6) and North Carolina State (No. 10) begin tournament play Thursday in the Dixie Classic against Villanova and Wyoming respectively.

Ohio State, showing its overwhelming balance, easily beat Seton all 97-57, the Bonnies had no trouble defeating St. Joseph's 83-70 and St. John's started fast and handed Providence its first loss 76-64. Utah won over Penn 72-60.

In other tournaments Baylor upset Oklahoma City 73-63 and New York University beat Tulsa 70-61 in the first round action of Oklahoma City's 25th All College Tournament. Houston faces Wichita and Utah State meets Texas Christian tonight.

Iowa State won over Missouri 72-68 and Kansas beat Nebraska 78-53 to set up the semifinal round in the Big Eight tournament tonight. Kansas State will meet Oklahoma, Monday's first-round winners, and Kansas and Iowa State, the defending champion will play the other game.

The University of Detroit and Colorado State University move into the finals of the Motor City Classic tonight. Detroit conquered Yale 83-67 and CSU beat Xavier (Ohio) 71-65 Tuesday night.

Purdue beat Notre Dame 78-58 behind Terry Dischinger's 32 points and Butler upset Illinois 70-68 in the Hoosier Classic. The teams change partners tonight. Denver won over Los Angeles State 79-74 and Penn State edged host Evansville 75-74 in the Evansville invitational. The winners face each other tonight.

St. Mary's beat Fordham 75-74 and San Jose State scraped by Loyola of Los Angeles 53-51 to complete first-round action in the West Coast Athletic Conference invitational.

National Pro League Holds Player Draft

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Two minute warning," said National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Rozelle had to go to extremes Tuesday to get one of the slowest moving player selection meetings in modern history into even low gear. He finally put a 10-minute limit on selections and issued a two-minute warning. The teams took 15 hours to pick 126 players in nine rounds. The balance of the 20-round draft of 280 players was adjourned to 10 a.m. (EST) today.

The league's newest franchise, Minnesota's Vikings, wasted little time making the No. 1 pick. General Manager Bert Rose took Tulsa halfback Tommy Mason, a third team All America coveted by a number of clubs. Rose, who earlier gave the impression he might trade Mason for a veteran quarterback, said later the 21-year-old Southeastern Conference star would not be dealt.

After Mason was taken, the drafting made the snail look like a 10-second sprinter. It took five hours to complete the first round. Teams took as long as two hours to decide on one choice. Cleveland dickered with Dallas for 2½ hours before finally trading the Cowboys its first choice for a player and a 1961 first pick.

Dallas used the selection to take Bob Lilly, TCU's All America tackle. The Cowboys later took E. J. Holub, Texas Tech linebacker. Now all the Cowboys have to do is outbid the American Football League's Dallas Texans for the pair.

The AFL, incidentally, was the reason for the tortuously slow procedure. NFL clubs had a telephone on each table in the drafting room. They didn't pick a man unless he had been contacted and assurance given that the player had not signed with the AFL, or Canada, and would play in the NFL.

Six of the 1960 All Americans were tabbed for pro warfare. Detroit took Missouri's Dan LaRose, Chicago latched onto Pitt end Mike Ditka, St. Louis got Auburn tackle Ken Rice, Philadelphia took Yale guard Ben Balme, Dallas picked Lilly, and Cleveland got Mississippi quarterback Jake Gibbs. Gibbs, who probably will play baseball, wasn't selected until the ninth round.

AFL teams earlier this month took most of the same players. They included Mason (Boston), Sneed, Rice and Baker (Buffalo), Rutgens (Oakland), McKeever by Cleveland, also was selected and Kilmer (Los Angeles Chargers) by the AFL's Oakland team.

WATER SKIING COWBOYS
ASTOUND PRAIRIE DOGS

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (NEA)— Since the mountains can't come to the water, water has come to the high valleys of Colorado.

Mustangs and prairie dogs on Rocky Mountain slopes can now look down to see a cowboy slide by on water skis.

Where the ranges used to rise into barren rows of foothills with snow capped peaks behind, reservoirs are being created between by damming up passes and canyons that once cut through the hills. Miles of water for irrigation—and waterways for boating are the result.

Every sailor longs to come home sometime from the sea. After many years we returned to see the home town we remembered as a dusty prairie community where the plains met the foothills. Instead we found a bustling town with tall shade trees growing over yards where pleasure boats sit ready on trailers for any pleasant weekend.

Rental runabout rigs are available, at sporting goods and hardware stores. On each transom is clamped an outboard motor, each with the power of a herd of the pintos that used to roam these ranges.

Where would a modern Westerner living between Denver and Cheyenne head for his boating we asked Fort Collins sportsman Dudley Cress.

Nearby reservoirs and mountain lakes attract runabouts to their launching ramps in the summer, he reported. Winter skippers take to ice boats when the mountain passes are open. Boating under sail has not become popular.

For the family with a week to spare, the goal may be north to Yellowstone Park, with boat in tow, or Mexico to the south and the Gulf of Lower California.

Zuckert Has Top Level Background

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)— Eugene Zuckert, who will be secretary of the Air Force in the new Democratic administration, has a top level background for the job.

He was an assistant to the first man to hold that post, Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo.

Zuckert, whose appointment was announced today at Palm Beach, Fla., by President-elect John F. Kennedy, has held a wide variety of government positions. He worked for the Securities and Exchange Commission in 1937 when he was fresh out of Yale Law School, and in 1952 became a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.

He left the AEC in 1954 and has been a Washington lawyer and management consultant since then.

At 49, Zuckert is stocky and balding.

As a schoolboy he attended the Salisbury, Conn., preparatory school where his roommate was G. Mennen Williams, retiring governor of Michigan who has been named by Kennedy to be assistant secretary of state.

At Yale Law School, Zuckert went through an experimental course proposed by William O. Douglas, now a member of the Supreme Court, which combined instruction at Yale with courses at the Harvard graduate school of business administration.

After serving with the Securities and Exchange Commission for three years, Zuckert in 1940 returned to the Harvard institution as an instructor, later becoming an assistant professor and assistant dean.

During the same years, 1940-44, Zuckert was a consultant to the then Army Air Force and taught at a statistical school for officers at Harvard.

Zuckert went to the office of chief of naval operations in Washington in 1944, working on a Navy inventory control plan with the rank of lieutenant, junior grade.

In 1945 he became an assistant to Symington, who then was head of the Surplus Property Administration.

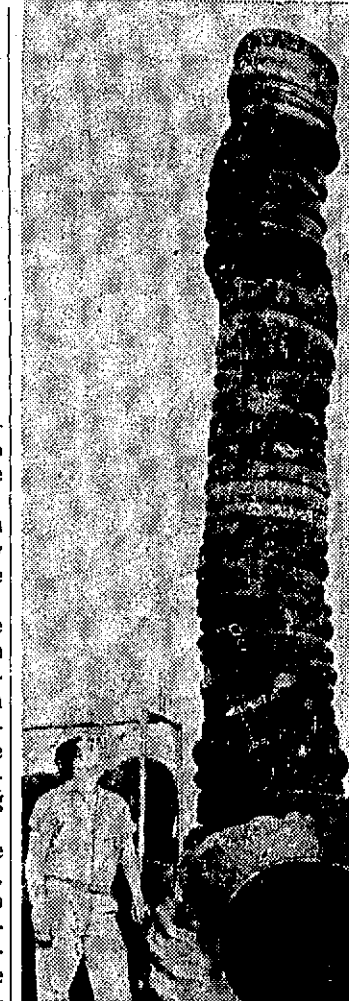

When the Air Force was created as a separate force in 1947, Symington became its first civilian head. He brought Zuckert with him as an assistant secretary.

Zuckert developed a computer system in the Air Force, the first of the three services to have one. Later this innovation was acted into law for all three as a result of Hoover Commission recommendations.

He was named to the Atomic Energy Commission in 1952 by President Harry S. Truman.

Zuckert has been described as friendly but quiet and self-effacing. His motto is "be objective." Like Kennedy, he enjoys golf.

Zuckert has been married twice and has three children.

TIRE POWER — Balanced-minded individuals quake at this sight—over 50 old tires stacked in a dealer's lot in Franceville, Ind. Attendant Bob Gutwein gazes at the precarious stack.

Sleeping bags and tent aboard the boat or a small shelter cabin, make the craft into a miniature house trailer.

For an afternoon of mountain boating skippers head for seven-mile-long Horseshoe Reservoir, Carter Lake, Chambers Lake or Rattlesnake Reservoir with snow-topped Long's Peak beyond. The scenery is spectacular.

Boating regulations are modern and strict. Though a lantern is required aboard all craft cruising after dark, boats must also be equipped with proper flotation and appear seaworthy—more stringent rules than the Coast Guard presently enforces for ocean pleasure craft. Boats in dubious repair are not allowed to be launched.

Cruisers as well as runabouts explore the craggy shorelines of these new mountain waterways.

A sailor home from the sea finds that the home folk have nautical knowledge that rivals more salty seamen 1,000 miles away on the coasts.

Among the Bantu of South Africa, the cost of an attractive wife of god family has reached the equivalent of $500 or $600.

Broyles Moans Over Lack of Manpower

DALLAS (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas wishes he had more manpower for his Cotton Bowl battle with Duke.

He complained Tuesday while drilling his squad at Houston that he didn't have enough men to conduct a good practice. He had only 44 and "it takes about 56 to work right."

Lack of manpower didn't hamper Arkansas much in the Southwestern Conference campaign when the Razorbacks won eight and lost two. But Duke does have more men and not only that but Coach Bill Murray is so well fixed he can substitute by units.

Tuesday, working at an Antonio, Murray announced plans to do the subbing by teams. He can afford to because his No. 2 group has outscored the starting team 11 touchdowns to nine.

The second unit has sophomore Walt Rappold at quarterback, Bob Garda and Mark Leggett at halfbacks and Dave Birch at fullback.

The first team has Don Altman at quarterback, Jack Wilson and Dean Wright at halfbacks and Jerry McGee at fullback.

The No. 1 unit has gained 1,540 yards to 893 for the second, however, so it must have been doing a lot of paving the way for the No. 2 boys to score.

Murray, however, isn't expecting Arkansas to collapse for want of manpower. "Arkansas was one of the top three teams of the nation at the finish of the regular season," he said. "We face a tough one but I am satisfied my boys are determined to win this game to make up for losses the last two weeks of the season."

Duke was beaten by North Carolina and UCLA.

Murray also said he expected it to be a wide open game and anticipated that both teams would break out with new stuff they have been able to develop in the long time between games.

He added that he expected his team to throw at least 20 passes, and that he noted Broyles had indicated his might do the same. That's the main reason Murray is predicting a wide open battle.
